FULL-TIME NON-TENURE TRACK FACULTY POSITIONS

University Procedure 12.07.99.C1.01 Revised December 3, 2012

1. GENERAL

Non tenure-track faculty positions play a critical role in the teaching, research/creative activity and service mission of the university. In consultation with the provost, each college dean determines the level of non-tenure-track faculty support that is needed, sends forward proposals to hire the appropriate people, and forwards documentation of qualifications to teach to the provost’s office. The standard load for non-tenure track faculty shall equal 15 hours or the equivalent as defined by the college.

2. Full-Time Non-Tenure Track Ranks

2.1 INSTRUCTOR – Instructors are full-time teaching appointments. Instructors must hold at minimum a master’s degree in the teaching field or related discipline and be appropriately credentialed to the courses they teach prior to the first day of class. Instructors are hired on annual contracts and may be reappointed.

2.2 VISITING FACULTY – Visiting faculty positions are annual, limited term appointments. Visiting appointments can be made at assistant, associate, or professor rank, depending on qualifications and experience. Visiting faculty may have duties that include teaching, research/creative activity, and/or service as detailed in their appointment letter. Visiting faculty must hold a terminal degree in the teaching or related discipline and be appropriately credentialed to the courses they teach prior to the first day of class. Visiting faculty members can be reappointed for up to a total of three years. With the approval of the dean and Provost, on rare occasions they may be extended for an explicitly defined period of time.

2.3 CLINICAL TRACK FACULTY – Clinical faculty positions are full-time appointments that bring excellence to the university through highly skilled and experienced practitioners who address a specific need in a department or college. Clinical faculty must hold at least a master’s degree in the teaching field or related discipline and be appropriately credentialed to the courses they teach prior to the first day of class.
