Revision History

Procedure Summary

This procedure applies to tenured and tenure-track faculty and should be read in conjunction with Texas A&M University System policy 12.01, Academic Freedom, Responsibility and Tenure, university rule 12.01.01.C1, Tenure. This procedure supplements system policy on topics such as written terms of employment, administrative leave, non-renewal of non-tenured tenure track faculty at the end of a term contract, faculty dismissals for cause, financial exigency, and the reduction of programs.

Procedure

1. WRITTEN TERMS OF EMPLOYMENT

Section 3 of system policy 12.01, Academic Freedom, Responsibility and Tenure addresses written terms of employment. See university rule 12.01.01.C1, Tenure, for additional information.

2. ADMINISTRATIVE LEAVE

Section 5 of system policy 12.01, Academic Freedom, Responsibility and Tenure addresses administrative leave. A faculty member placed on administrative leave with pay may appeal the decision to the Provost and Vice President for Academic Affairs (Provost) by submitting an appeal in writing within five (5) business days of being notified of the leave. Appeals presented after the 5th business day shall be denied as untimely.

3. NOTICE OF NON-REAPPOINTMENT OR OF INTENTION NOT TO REAPPOINT

Notice of non-reappointment or of intention not to reappoint a non-tenured tenure track faculty member, will be given in writing in accordance with the standards prescribed in section 4.2 of system policy 12.01, Academic Freedom, Responsibility and Tenure.

4. REVIEW BY FACULTY PEERS IN APPEALS OF ADMINISTRATIVE DECISIONS
4.1. Faculty members who have been successfully tenured, hold the rank of associate professor or higher, and do not have administrative appointments of more than 49% are eligible for the Faculty Hearing Committee/Advisory Committee Pool as part of the regular committee appointment cycle. From this list of eligible faculty, the Faculty Senate will randomly select a pool of 24 tenured faculty members to serve as the annual Faculty Hearing Committee/Advisory Committee Pool. The Provost may supplement this pool to address considerations of conflict of interest, diversity, and workload. Should faculty members need to serve on advisory or hearing committees referenced in this procedure, the Provost, in consultation with Faculty Senate, shall randomly select the appropriate number of faculty members from the Faculty Hearing Committee/Advisory Committee Pool to serve on those committees. Members of the Faculty Hearing Committee/Advisory Committee Pool will serve staggered terms so that eight (8) members rotate off every year.

4.2. Being selected to be a part of the Faculty Hearing Committee/Advisory Committee Pool is part of faculty’s professional responsibility and exemplifies the ideals of shared governance.

5. NON-RENEWAL OF NON-TENURED TENURE TRACK FACULTY AT END OF TERM CONTRACT

5.1. Section 7 of system policy 12.01, Academic Freedom, Responsibility and Tenure addresses non-renewal of non-tenured tenure track faculty at the end of a term contract.

5.2. A faculty member has the right to present a grievance in writing to the Provost on an issue related to the non-renewal or termination of the faculty member’s employment at the institution. If a faculty member desires to present a grievance, the faculty member shall notify the Provost in writing not later than the 20th business day after the faculty member receives notice of the non-renewal or termination. Grievances presented after the 20th business day shall be denied as untimely.

5.3. A non-tenured tenure track faculty member may appeal a decision not to reappoint but only on the basis of an allegation that the decision was made: (1) in violation of the academic freedom of the individual; (2) for a discriminatory reason; or (3) for inadequate consideration of the record of professional achievement. For purposes of this section, a discriminatory reason is defined as a decision based on race, color, sex, religion, national origin, age, disability, genetic information, veteran status, sexual orientation, or gender identity, or made in retaliation for the faculty member's exercise of protected First Amendment rights. Such an appeal must be presented to the Provost in writing, pursuant to section 7.3 of system policy 12.01, Academic Freedom, Responsibility and Tenure. At least one of these allegations must be made by the faculty member in order to initiate the appeal process. If a faculty member desires to appeal, the faculty member shall notify the Provost in writing not later than the 20th business day after the faculty member receives written notice of the decision not to reappoint. Appeals presented after the 20th business day shall be denied as untimely. Appeals on the basis of a discriminatory reason shall be referred for investigation and resolution in accordance with system regulation 08.01.01, Civil Rights Compliance, and university rule 08.01.01.C1, Civil Rights Compliance.

5.4. Upon receipt of an appeal from the faculty member, the Provost will randomly select five (5) faculty members from the faculty pool referenced in section 4 of this procedure to serve on an advisory (preliminary review) committee. Each member of the advisory committee shall be subject to challenge for cause by the faculty member and the administration. Each side shall be allowed a maximum of two (2) challenges. The Speaker of the Faculty Senate will determine the validity of the challenges. The committee shall elect its own chairperson. The chairperson shall retain the right of discussion at all times and will vote only in the case of a tie. The advisory committee’s proceedings may be informal and flexible.

5.5. The advisory committee will conduct a preliminary review of the allegations, pursuant to section 7.4 of system policy 12.01, Academic Freedom, Responsibility and Tenure to determine whether the faculty member has established that a violation as defined in section 5.3 of this procedure may have occurred.

5.6. If the faculty advisory committee determines that the allegations establish a prima facie case and recommends a formal evidentiary hearing, the Provost will proceed with arrangements for the hearing by the deadlines provided in section 7.5 of system policy 12.01, Academic Freedom, Responsibility and Tenure. The university will provide staff support to schedule and hold a hearing. The hearing committee shall be composed of five (5) tenured faculty members randomly selected by the Provost from the pool described in section 4 of this procedure. The hearing committee will be a separate and distinct body from the advisory committee described above. Each member of the hearing committee shall be subject to challenge for cause by the faculty member and the administration. Each side shall be allowed a maximum of three (3) challenges. The Speaker of the Faculty Senate will determine the validity of the challenges. The committee will select its own chairperson and other such officers as it deems necessary. The chair shall retain the right of discussion at all times and will vote only in the case of a tie. Control of the committee proceedings shall be retained by the chair.

5.7. Both the faculty member and the administration have the right of representation at the hearing; as well as the right to confront and question witnesses; and if a witness cannot appear, the right to the name of the witness and any written statements made by the witness.

5.8. The hearing will be scheduled pursuant to section 7.5 of system policy 12.01, Academic Freedom, Responsibility and Tenure.

5.9. The faculty member shall present: (1) a written brief stating the specific basis for the allegations; (2) exhibits (documents) supporting the allegations; and (3) a list of witnesses, including a short written statement of the anticipated testimony of each witness, to the chair of the hearing committee and to the administration’s representative at least thirty (30) days before the date of the formal hearing.

5.10. The findings of the hearing committee shall be limited to determining whether the decision not to renew the appointment was made in violation of the faculty member’s academic freedom, or for a discriminatory reason, as defined in section 7.3 of system policy 12.01, Academic Freedom, Responsibility and Tenure, or without adequate consideration of the faculty member’s record of professional achievement, depending on the basis of the faculty member’s appeal. In addition, the hearing committee may make recommendations to the Provost regarding possible solutions.

5.11. In deliberating, the committee should allow oral arguments and/or written briefs by the dean or their representative(s) and by the faculty member or their designated representative(s). The committee's findings and recommendation shall be conveyed in writing to the Provost and to the faculty member, pursuant to section 7.5 of system policy 12.01, Academic Freedom, Responsibility and Tenure.

5.12. The hearing shall be closed unless the affected faculty member requests that it be open.

5.13. The Provost will review the recommendations of the hearing committee and will make a decision. The Provost’s decision is final.

6. DISMISSAL FOR CAUSE OF FACULTY WITH TENURE OR WITH UNEXPIRED TERM APPOINTMENTS

6.1. Good cause for dismissal is defined and addressed in sections 4.3 and 4.4 of system policy 12.01, Academic Freedom, Responsibility and Tenure.

6.2. A bona fide effort by appropriate administrative officers and/or committees should be made to achieve a satisfactory resolution of difficulties through preliminary inquiry, discussion, or confidential mediation.

6.3. Should these efforts fail to achieve a satisfactory resolution and should the difficulties be considered by the administration to be serious enough to warrant dismissal, the faculty member should be afforded the opportunity for a hearing that meets the requirements set forth in section 7 of this procedure.

6.4. As provided in section 51.942 of the Texas Education Code, a tenured faculty member subject to termination on the basis of a post-tenure review must be given the opportunity for referral of the matter to a nonbinding alternative dispute resolution process as described in chapter 154 of the Civil Practice and Remedies Code. The code describes various processes, including mediation facilitated by an impartial third party. The opportunity for referral of the matter to nonbinding alternative dispute resolution must be provided prior to referral of the charges to a hearing committee under section 7 of this procedure.

6.5. In any dismissal proceedings, the faculty member and the administration shall have the right to representation at their own expense.

7. DISMISSAL FOR CAUSE HEARINGS

7.1. In hearings regarding the dismissal of a tenured faculty member or the dismissal of a non-tenured tenure track faculty member whose term appointment has not expired at the time of dismissal, the burden of proof is on the institution to establish, by a preponderance of the evidence, the existence of good cause for dismissal. The President of Texas A&M University-Corpus Christi has delegated authority for oversight of the logistics of pre-termination hearings to the Provost. The process described in this section of the procedure applies to cases involving such faculty members.

7.2. The Provost shall notify the faculty member in writing of the charges constituting good cause for dismissal and the opportunity for a fair and impartial hearing by a hearing committee. A tenured faculty member subject to termination on the basis of a post-tenure review shall also be notified of the opportunity for referral of the matter to a nonbinding alternative dispute resolution process, pursuant to section 6.4 of this procedure. If the faculty member desires to appeal the termination, the faculty member shall notify the Provost in writing no later than the 10th business day after the date the faculty member receives the notice of termination. A faculty member who notifies the Provost in writing within the time prescribed is entitled to a hearing as provided in this section. Appeals presented after the 10th business day shall be denied as untimely. If the faculty member does not present an appeal within the time prescribed, the administration shall take the appropriate action and notify the faculty member in writing. The Provost shall notify the hearing committee within five (5) business days of the date the appeal has been filed.

7.3. At the hearing, the faculty member shall have the right to: (1) be represented by an individual of the faculty member’s choice; (2) hear the evidence on which the charges are based; (3) present evidence; and (4) cross-examine each adverse witness and if a witness cannot appear, the right to the name of the witness and any written statements made by the witness. The administration shall also have the right to representation. A certified shorthand reporter shall record the hearing.

7.4. The hearing committee shall be composed of five (5) tenured faculty representatives randomly selected by the President from the faculty pool described in section 4 of this procedure. Each member shall be subject to challenge for cause by the faculty member and the administration. Each side shall be allowed a maximum of three (3) challenges. The Speaker of the Faculty Senate will determine the validity of the challenges. The committee shall elect its own chairperson and other such officers as it deems necessary, and the chairperson shall retain the right of discussion at all times and will vote only in the case of a tie. Control of committee proceedings shall be retained by the chair.

7.5. The hearing committee shall schedule a hearing pursuant to section 8.2.2 of system policy 12.01, Academic Freedom, Responsibility and Tenure.

7.6. Subject to section 8.2.2 of system policy 12.01, Academic Freedom, Responsibility and Tenure, the hearing committee shall set a time for the hearing that will allow the faculty member a reasonable time to prepare a defense to the charges made and shall notify the faculty member and the administration of the time and place of the hearing. The administration’s witness list, including a short statement of the anticipated testimony of each witness, and a copy of the administration’s exhibits shall be provided by the administration to the hearing committee and the faculty member at least fifteen (15) business days before the hearing. The faculty member’s witness list, including a short statement of the anticipated testimony of each witness, and a copy of the faculty member’s exhibits shall be provided by the faculty member to the hearing committee and the administration at least fifteen (15) business days before the hearing. Witnesses may be added at a later date for good cause as determined by the hearing committee.

7.7. A faculty member may be reassigned or suspended during the pendency of termination proceedings pursuant to section 6.3 of system policy 12.01, Academic Freedom, Responsibility and Tenure.

7.8. The hearing committee shall formulate explicit findings and recommendations and convey them pursuant to section 8.2.4 of system policy 12.01, Academic Freedom, Responsibility and Tenure.

7.9. The hearing shall be closed unless the affected faculty member requests that it be open.

7.10. If the President proposes termination of the faculty member’s appointment, the process outlined in subsections 8.2.5 through 8.2.7 of system policy 12.01, Academic Freedom, Responsibility and Tenure shall be followed.

8. TENURE, FINANCIAL EXIGENCY, AND REDUCTION OF PROGRAMS

8.1. Cases of bona fide financial exigency or reduction or discontinuance of institutional programs based on educational considerations shall follow the definitions and process outlined in section 9 of system policy 12.01, Academic Freedom, Responsibility and Tenure.

8.2. When faculty dismissals are contemplated on grounds of financial exigency or program termination or reduction, the Provost and appropriate dean should facilitate early, careful, and meaningful sharing of information and views with appropriate faculty representatives on the reasons indicating the need to terminate programs. Recommendations from such faculty representatives shall be sought on alternatives available to the institution to ensure continuation of a strong academic program and to minimize the losses sustained by affected students and faculty members.

8.3. A faculty member selected for termination shall be given an opportunity to respond in a hearing before a hearing committee. If the faculty member desires to request a hearing, the faculty member shall notify the Provost in writing within fifteen (15) business days of the date on which the faculty member was given a written notice of the decision to terminate on the basis of a bona fide financial exigency or the phasing out of an institutional program necessitating a reduction in staff. A faculty member who notifies the Provost in writing within the time prescribed is entitled to a hearing as provided in this section. Requests presented after the 15th business day shall be denied as untimely. If the faculty member does not request a hearing within the time prescribed, the administration shall take the appropriate action and notify the faculty member in writing.

8.4. The hearing committee shall be composed of five (5) tenured faculty members randomly selected by the Provost from the faculty pool described in section 4 of this procedure. Normally, the hearing committee should be designated no later than fifteen (15) business days after the Provost has received the request for a hearing. Each member will be subject to challenge for cause for a maximum of three (3) challenges. The Speaker of the Faculty Senate will determine the validity of the challenges. The committee shall elect its own chairperson and other such officers as it deems necessary. The chairperson shall retain the right of discussion at all times and will vote only in the case of a tie. Control of committee proceedings shall be retained by the chair. Normally, the hearing committee should schedule a hearing within fifteen (15) business days after their appointment by the Provost.

8.5. After reviewing the hearing committee’s findings, the President will make a decision about the termination.
