Texas A&M University-Corpus Christi provides academic scholarships designed to reward, encourage, and assist students in pursuing academic excellence and leadership roles. This procedure provides guidelines for the oversight, establishment, and awarding of academic scholarships.

Procedure

1. OVERSIGHT OF ACADEMIC SCHOLARSHIPS

   Academic scholarships may be awarded on the university level or on the college, departmental, or program level.

   1.1. University Scholarship Committee

       The University Scholarship Committee is charged with the following responsibilities:

       (a) Oversee the process for the awarding of academic and fine arts scholarships at the university, college, departmental, or program level.

       (b) Develop and implement guidelines regarding the awarding of scholarships.

       (c) Conduct evaluations to facilitate the development of award guidelines.

       (d) Review and evaluate academic and fine arts scholarships that are administered by the university and, if necessary, modify them.

       (e) Select the recipients of certain university-level academic scholarships.

       (f) Hear appeals concerning the withdrawal of scholarships.

   1.2. The University Scholarship Committee consists of faculty representatives from each academic college, as well as representatives of various administrative units.
Information on the process and criteria for selecting the committee membership and its chair may be found on the university’s Committees and Councils website.

1.3. Other Scholarship Committees

Scholarship committees may be established at the college, departmental, or program level, based on guidelines developed by the college or unit. Such committees may be charged with one or more of the following responsibilities:

(a) Develop specific criteria to be used in awarding scholarships administered by the college or unit. The specific criteria must conform to the general criteria in this procedure and to other criteria developed by the University Scholarship Committee or College of Graduate Studies.

(b) Award academic scholarships administered on the college or unit level.

(c) Provide reports on the academic scholarship activities within the college or unit.

(d) Analyze the success of the scholarship recipients to determine if the criteria for receiving and continuing scholarships are appropriate.

1.4. Oversight of Grant-Funded Scholarships

The Division of Research, Commercialization and Outreach will review scholarships funded through external grants to ensure that the selection process conforms to relevant governmental regulations and agency guidelines.

2. ESTABLISHMENT OF ACADEMIC SCHOLARSHIPS

2.1. Donor-Funded Academic Scholarships

2.1.1. All contributions for the establishment of donor-funded academic scholarships, including those accepted by colleges and departments, will be processed through Institutional Advancement. The Assistant Vice President of Development will ensure that the full reporting and approval processes for acceptance of private gifts from all sources, including individuals, foundations, and corporations, are followed.

2.1.2. Those wishing to establish scholarships are directed to Institutional Advancement. Institutional Advancement is responsible for establishing an agreement between the university and the donor. A copy of this agreement will be forwarded to the Scholarships Office. The Office of the Comptroller assigns an account number and advises Institutional Advancement and the Scholarships Office. Monies to support scholarships are received in Institutional Advancement.
2.1.3. The responsibility for formally acknowledging all donors' scholarship contributions and for reporting a list of scholarship recipients to the donors resides with Institutional Advancement. The Scholarships Office will aid in the identification process.

2.1.4. Institutional Advancement is responsible for the creation and maintenance of a master file on all scholarships. The file will contain all details associated with each scholarship including its agreements, monetary value, provisions, awarding history, and history of interactions with donors. The Scholarships Office is responsible for creating and maintaining a file containing a list of scholarship awards for each academic year.

2.1.5. Gifts from donors can be used to fund both scholarship endowments and annual scholarships.

2.1.5.1. Scholarship Endowment – An endowment preserves the principal of a gift to the university or the Texas A&M-Corpus Christi Foundation. In the case of scholarship endowments, the gift is invested, and a portion of the earnings is used to fund the scholarship. The remaining earnings, if any, are reinvested each year to retain purchasing power. This method allows the endowment to continue to grow and thereby increases the scholarship award. Endowments offer a stable source of scholarship funds each year to the university.

2.1.5.2. Annual Scholarships – An annual scholarship is fully available for awarding upon receipt from the donor. None of the funds are invested for long-term existence.

2.1.6. Questions about setting up a scholarship should be directed to Institutional Advancement; inquiries about the administration of undergraduate and graduate endowed scholarships should be directed to the Scholarships Office and/or the College of Graduate Studies.

2.2. Academic Scholarships Funded With Institutional Funds

2.2.1. The Scholarships Office is responsible for determining the criteria and overseeing the awarding process of undergraduate academic scholarships funded with institutional funds. Similarly, the College of Graduate Studies oversees graduate academic scholarships.

3. ELIGIBILITY REQUIREMENTS

The Scholarship Office and College of Graduate Studies provide information regarding the eligibility requirements for different types of university scholarships (i.e., donor and in institutional funded scholarships).

4. GUIDELINES FOR AWARDING ACADEMIC SCHOLARSHIPS

When scholarships are awarded, information will be communicated to the Scholarships Office, the College of Graduate Studies, and Institutional Advancement within two (2) weeks of the award decision by the University Scholarship Committee.
